

Timetable of the Online Workshop

UK time	04.30– 08.30	08.30 -11.30	11.30 - 15.30
Japanese time	12.30 - 16.30	16.30 -19.30	19..30 - 23.30
Saturday 17 th July		Students to meet informally – exchange of gifts and fun icebreaker activities Single room (Room 0) with breakout rooms (for icebreaker) 6 rooms (Room 0 – 5) for final checks for all participants (students, teachers, facilitators, ...) to get to know IT environment (Zoom and Google Classroom)
Monday Day 1 19th July	nothing	Opening ceremony, welcome talk for everyone (Room 0) Break into project groups (Room 1- 5): UK and Japanese students meet up with facilitators and scientists who outline projects in context of their own work; projects begin involving students in both countries starting together in 5 concurrent rooms (1 room per project); students of Science Communication may join corresponding 4 projects to observe later.	UK groups continue work And send ideas to Japan
Tuesday Day 2 20th July	Japanese groups start work and send ideas back. Space for zooming between UK and Japanese groups	Discussion with scientists of progress made and UK and Japanese students work together. 5 rooms (1 room per project). The students of Science Communication will stay in their corresponding projects. Teachers' Forum in Room 0 – Teachers from UK-Japan to exchange ideas: this forum uses Room 0.	UK groups continue and send ideas to Japan
Wednesday Day 3 21st July	Japanese groups continue and send ideas back. Space for zooming between groups	Discussion with scientists of progress made and UK and Japanese students work together. Concurrent rooms with possibly breakout rooms depending on project	UK groups continue and send ideas to Japan

Thursday Day 4 22nd July	Japanese groups continue with work on presentation. Space for zooming between groups	Discussion with scientists of progress made and UK and Japanese students work together. Concurrent rooms with possibly breakout rooms All students get together in one session (room) and learn how to prepare the final preparation (by MG?). Later, students of Science Communication go back to their own group; so 5 sessions to run, preparing for final presentations on Friday	UK group start the presentation preparation and send outline to Japan
Friday Day 5 23rd July	Japanese groups continue with work on presentation	Practise presentations: 5 rooms, one per project (30 mins) Presentations and the closing ceremony: Room 0 with a number of guests, ...	